ANCESTORS WEST is published quarterly in March, June, September and December. Non-member subscriptions are $6.00 per annum. Single copies of current and back issues are $1.50, depending on availability. The rate for advertising is $3.00 for the first 20 words and 10 cents for each additional word. Exchange advertising from genealogical and historical periodicals is welcomed. Contributions of a genealogical or historical nature will be accepted as space allows. Queries are encouraged. Quotes and reviews from pieces appearing in ANCESTORS WEST have the approval of the Society if the source is credited.

A Santa Barbara County Genealogical Society membership is $15.00 for the calendar year, dues payable by February 1, and includes one subscription to the quarterly, ANCESTORS WEST. Members joining after July 1st pay half the annual dues and receive September and December ANCESTORS WEST. Special consideration is given for Life, Associate and Honorary members.

Regular meetings, first Saturday of each month, 10AM to 3 PM Room 1, Goleta Community Center, 5689 Hollister Ave., Goleta. Library at above address open each Wednesday, 12M to 4 PM. Attendance of visitors is warmly encouraged.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - A HELPING TOOL FOR A LOCAL SOCIETY

Two of our members have provided and arranged a large three-hole notebook with INDEX pages for all the states and several countries in which members are searching. Each person is asked to register under the appropriate state or country the FAMILY name with the approximate dates of those researched. Thus another member can locate a fellow searcher - perhaps a distant kinsman. In this way the individuals in the Santa Barbara County Genealogical Society are able to help one another.

PERRY FAMILIES OF NEW YORK STATE

Help for research of Perry families in New York State is coming eventually.

Laura Perry McColley collected voluminous records of Perrys who resided in New York State - particularly Saratoga and Cayuga Counties. After her death in 1969 the material was stored in the home of her brother in Cass City, Michigan. Mr. Perry is turning the numerous note books over to a Perry searcher. It may be months or even years before the records are completely organized.

If Perry searchers will send their query on a three by five card using the following format they will be filed according to given name, will be checked periodically to match the query with the data extracted.

Please send card and SASE to

Mrs. Wilbur H. Thies (Emily Perry)
41 Northridge Road
Santa Barbara, CA 93105

FAMILY REUNIONS

SOGS member Ronald "Pat" Harville has submitted a report of the second family reunion of the descendants of Dr. John William Harville, an early California settler of Todds Valley, Placer County, which will appear in the next issue of ANCESTORS WEST. 1983 gathering planned for Ferndale, CA, entered around Fern Cottage, the cherished home of Annie (Russ) Harville.

International gathering of O'NEILLS planned for the last two weeks of June 1982 in Ireland. The director of the reunion is Kathleen Neill, 162a Kingsway, Dunmurry, Belfast BT17 9AD Northern Ireland. An announcement of the programme of events is included in FAMILY LINKS, PAST AND PRESENT, Vol. 1, No. 1, just received. Scheduled are the inauguration of the chief, a Gala Fete Day at Shane's Castle, Antrim, County Antrim, the estate of the Rt. Hon. The Lord O'Neill, who will be host for the day with a variety of events including traditional dancing and music, races, games and a steam rally, sight-seeing tours, talks about the history of the O'Neills and about tracing Irish family history in general, by leading authorities in this field, and at least one banquet which will be hosted by several notable O'Neills, including the nominal heads of the 'sept'. If interested in attending, one should contact Mrs. Kathleen Neill, Director, without delay.

MYSTERIOUS CROSS ONCE IN THE TOWER OF SANTA BARBARA MISSION

The original 8 x 10 photograph at the Santa Barbara Mission Archives Library was photographed by Michael Lawler, son of SBCGS member Janet Lawler, and is here reproduced through the courtesy of Fr. Virgilio Biasiol, O.F.M., Director.

Dr. Neuerburg is Professor of Art at California State University, Dominguez Hills, a Fellow of the American Academy in Rome, and was a consultant on design for the J. Paul Getty Museum at Malibu, California.

DID SANTA BARBARA MISSION ONCE HAVE ITS OWN "STONEHENGE"?

After describing restoration of certain statuary at Santa Barbara Mission, an article by Norman Neuerburg in the current newsletter of the Friends of the Mission Archives states:

"A unique piece of plaster relief sculpture, certainly also by an Indian artist, once adorned the interior of the right hand bell tower until it was lost as a result of the 1925 earthquake. Its existence was revealed by a photograph discovered in the Archive-Library taken right after the disaster. It showed a simple cross, flanked by a pair of flags, above a row of triangles clearly of Indian origin. Its exact meaning is obscure, but it probably meant different things to the mission fathers and to the Indians for it was so placed that it could only be seen at certain times of the year when it was lighted by a ray of the sun. That particular date may have had separate meanings for the Indians and the Spaniards." with note: (For a more lengthy discussion, see the author's two articles in THE MASTERKEY, Vol.51, No.4, pp.147-153, and Vol.54, No.4, pp. 150-153.)

ANSWERING QUERIES PAYS

Some of the editor's experiences: About a year ago a query placed by Clyde M. Senger, 1103 Yew St., Bellingham, WA 98225 regarding the PEARL family of Bradford and Bowdoin, Essex County, Massachusetts resulted in additional data on that family from him and a sample of Mt. St. Helens ashes.

Answering a query in THE SECOND BOAT regarding Methuen, Essex Co., Mass. and Pelham, Hillsborough Co., N.H. families, resulted in much correspondence with Melinde Hatfield, 2629 Belmont, Eugene OR 97404, who is about to produce her first issue as editor of The BULLETIN, the quarterly publication of the Oregon Genealogical Society. She is the granddaughter of Charles Warren Mann, Jr. of Methuen, and a double relative as her grandfather and your editor's father were brothers and her grandmother Mary Elizabeth (Marsh) Mann and Ella Agnes (Hobbs) Mann were cousins, both having been granddaughters of Moody Hobbs and Elizabeth Parker (Spofford) Hobbs.

Early Minnesota Chronology

(Tracing Your Ancestors in Minnesota, vol. 1, 2nd ed. p. 64)

- 1654 Raddison and Groseilliers, French traders, made an expedition into the west, reaching the Wisconsin region and possibly the Minnesota country.
- 1680 Father Hennepin discovered the Falls of St. Anthony, which he named.
- 1689, May 8, Nicholas Perrot, at his fort, St. Antoine, on the Wisconsin shore of Lake Pepin, laid formal claim to the surrounding country for France.
- 1727 The French established Fort Beauharnois near the site of Frontenac on Lake Pepin.
- 1763 By the Treaty of Versailles, France ceded the part of Minnesota east of the Mississippi to England, the country west of the river having been ceded to Spain the previous year.
- 1784 The Northwest Company was conducting extensive fur-trading operations in the Minnesota country with headquarters at Grand Portage. All of Minnesota east of the Mississippi became United States territory.

THE LITTLE HOUSE ON THE PRAIRIE

Walnut Grove (756 inhabitants), on the banks of Plum Creek, Minnesota, immortalized by Laura Ingalls Wilder in her "Little House" books and by the TV series, "Little House on the Prairie" has recently been in the news due to a teachers' strike.

FRENCH-CANADIAN FAMILIES OF THE NORTH CENTRAL STATES, a Genealogical Dictionary.

For sale by NWTFF&CHI (see address in above list) Complete set $199.00 pre-publication price, postpaid. Only about 20% of this original one time printing remains. Order from NWTFF&CHI, P.O. Box 26372, St. Louis Park, MN 55426.

After years of gathering information a large Genealogical Dictionary is now being published. Compiled from family genealogies, census returns, church records, fur trader and explorer reports, early area and county histories and other publications. The series lists each French-Canadian known to have been in the area of Minnesota, western Wisconsin, northern Iowa, eastern Dakotas and Southern Manitoba. It has been attempted to trace ancestors back to France, and the descendants up to the present regardless of whether they stayed in this area or not and have also continued to list the families of the females even though their names may no longer be of French-Canadian origin. The set contains 8 volumes and will be completed before the end of 1981. Vols. I - VI ready for immediate delivery. Class A Library bound (hardcover) 8 1/2 x 11, and self-indexing.

A CHECKLIST OF FRENCH-CANADIAN GENEALOGICAL WORKS AT THE MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY REFERENCE LIBRARY. Guide to books available for research. Price $5.00 plus $1.00 postage. Order from NWTFF&CHI, P.O. Box 26372, St. Louis Park MN 55426.

COUSINS ET COUSINES: A Newsletter for Members of the NWTFF&CHI, a Section of the Minnesota Genealogical Society. A copy of the August, 1981 issue is in the SBOGS Library.

FIRST ANNUAL DINNER PARTY

Although the dinner party never came to pass, there was a lot of hard work generated as well as an outpouring of funds and gifts of merchandise by many local business people.

In addition, special thanks have to go to Bill Downey, the intended speaker, and his wife, Kim, for being so willing to interrupt their own heavy schedule of writing, teaching and speaking to conform their time to the on-again, off-again dinner. Again, many thanks, Bill and Kim.

The following contributed either money or gifts of merchandise:

SANTA BARBARA BOAT RENTALS, Sail and Power Boats	$15.00
Santa Barbara Breakwater
REGAL CLEANERS, Dry Cleaning Alpha Beta Shopping Center	15.00
JOE REDFORD- TOYOTA, Automobile Dealer 5611 Hollister Avenue	15.00
JOH. C. STEUTEL, Watchmaker and Repairman 3114-B State Street	15.00
INTERSTATE ENTERPRISES, Real Estate Loans and Appraisals	15.00
3757 State Street, Suite 201
GRAPHIC IMAGES, Pictures and Frames 5680 Calle Real	Gift
THE FOOTNOTE*, Ladies Shoes and Accessories 5738 Calle Real	Gift
D'ARTAGNAN'S, Restaurant 5688 Calle Real	Gift
BURTON'S FAMILY PHARMACY, Drugs 5654 Calle Real	Gift
PRESIDIO REALTY, Real Estate 5654 Calle Real	Two Gifts
CASA VEGA, Mexican Restaurant 435 N. Milpas Street	Gift
H. SALT FISH AND CHIPS, Fast Food Restaurant	Gift
Alpha Beta Shopping Center

In addition, other advertisers were willing to contribute but due to the sudden cancellation of the dinner, funds or gifts were not solicited. Some of our friends were as follows:

Channel Paper Company, Robertson Travel, Santa Barbara Aviation, J. C. Paddock, Real Estate Appraisals, Angelo's Delicatessen and Suzette's Posey Patch.

SEPTEMBER 19th WORKSHOP

Attendance at the workshop was gratifying. Area workshops were set up in several rooms, with appropriate research sources and helpful suggestions from members available to those wishing assistance. Several renewed memberships and a number became new members of the society. Many felt that a two-day session would be desirable and many more that the event should be repeated two or three times each year. Carol and Steve Roth are to be thanked for their generosity in providing so much work space and signs designating the various areas; also the many members and friends who loaned books and actively participated in making the event a success by attending, bringing guests, and otherwise making contributions.

Since the preparation of this list by the Librarian a Sample Copy of Vol. 1, No. 1, FAMILY LINKS - PAST AND PRESENT, the three-times-a-year publication of the Irish Genealogical Assoc'n, Kathleen Neill, editor, has been received and is in the SBOGS Library. It contains much informative material on Irish history, records which have survived, their location and availability. Ten pages on Surnames of the Upper Ards are reprinted with a chart showing localities occupied by the many named families. This issue is handsomely produced, in size 8 1/2 x 11, with illustrations, some in color, and is highly recommended to those of Irish ancestry.

A leaflet has also been received from the Irish genealogical Association, 162a Kingsway, Dunaury, Belfast BT17 9AD, North Ireland Telephone Belfast (0232) 629595 Telex 74314 setting forth the programme for the weeks of 20-27 June 1982 commencing with Welcome night June 20 8:30 p.m. Queen's Elms University Halls of Residence, Belfast; June 21 a.m. lectures on tracing family history and on history. P.M. free. Evening formal banquet, presentation of VIPs, including the Lords O'Neill. June 22 a.m. lectures on early emigration from Ireland, Irish folklore and customs. P.M. sightseeing in Co. Antrim. Evening, main lecture of the gathering with speaker, Sir Iain Moncreiffe of that ilk. June 23 Gala Fete Day, Shane's Castle, home of the Rt. Hon. the Lord O'Neill and inauguration of the Chieftain. June 24 A.M. free; P. M. visit to Carrickfergus Castle, Co. Antrim. June 25 Coaches leave Belfast 9:30 a.m. for Donegal/Darry, sightseeing on the way. Reception in Londonderry; June 26 A.M. free for sightseeing and shopping. P.M. coaches leave at 3 p.m. for Fanad Peninsula, Co. Donegal, for a pageant depicting the Flight of the Earls in 1607. Evening, an Irish night in Donegal. Those staying for the second week have a choice between sightseeing tours or a rest day.

CLEANINGS

In NEW ENGLAND GENEALOGY, Issue No. 17, July 1981, edited by Joseph W. Glynn, Jr., Director/Librarian 173 Tremont St., Newton, MA 02158, telephone 617 966-0939, a little-known and greatly underutilized manuscript at the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston is given a four-page exposure.

The title, New England Marriages Prior to 1700, by Clarence Almon Torrey (1870-1962) may be somewhat misleading. The article suggests INDEX TO NEW ENGLAND MARRIAGES PRIOR TO 1700 might better describe the manuscript. The work was prepared over a period of some 35 years, starting in 1927, during which Torrey examined in the NEHGS Library printed vital records, family and local histories, genealogical magazines and many other sources. The work lists alphabetically by husbands all males in New England married prior to 1700 and is in the Library in photocopy form bound into 12 volumes with blue covers in the reference room. A Microfilm Edition was published in 1979 by NEHGS on 7 reels for $269. Reference Librarians at NEHGS have also compiled a card index to Torrey's sources which are said to be in shoeboxes in the cabinet beneath the volumes. The manuscript was not received until after Torrey's death in 1962.

Clarence Almon Torrey was a former Librarian at the University of Chicago, who later resided in Dorchester, Mass. He lists about 37,000 marriages prior to 1700 either in New England or the mother country. He indexed about 2,000 sources and listed about 100,000 references. About 70% of the wives are said to be identified by their maiden surnames. Types of sources indexed include single-family genealogies, family histories (multi-ancestor compendia or ancestral lines books), periodicals like the Register, TAG, N. Y. Record, Essex Antiquarian, Mayflower Descendant, Putnam's, genealogical dictionaries, town histories, some Boston Transcript entries and printed town vital records. Since he worked until about 1960, there is only about a single-generation gap in material covered up to the present time.

The following listing of Content of Torrey's Marriage Index is presented:

1. Husband's names listed alphabetically. (No cross reference by wife's names.) Example follows and comment: Below the wives' names Torrey might include notes like "dau John" or "m (2) Michael Bacon, 1670."
2. Marriage date in column 2. If unknown, "b 1676" indicates year of birth of eldest child.
3. Place of Marriage in column 3. "Lyme, Ct." or "Newbury". Torrey assumes you will know Newbury is in Mass. so doesn't give the state. If residences were elsewhere these other places are given. Example: Thomas Noyes & Sarah Knight Nov. 16, 1686 Newbury/Haverhill. Here Torrey tells us they were married in Newbury and also resided in Haverhill. Place of marriage is sometimes in England.
4. Year of birth and death for both spouses. Below the name of each person Torrey places "1643-1726" showing Moses Noyes was born in 1643 and died in 1726, or "1648 - " born 1648 and death year unknown or " - 1718" died in 1718, birth year unknown.
5. Sources of Information in column 3 below the marriage place. This is the best information in Torrey and the part that justifies the term "index: to describe his work. The books or articles where Torrey found the marriage or any mention of the husband at all anywhere. In these sources one might find much more than the data Torrey has already provided. Sometimes the sources are so numerous that they spill over into the first two columns. (Examples of abbreviations used are given.) These sources provide a vast index to all references to married New Englanders to 1700.

An index of the Santa Barbara County Marriage Records included in Vol. 6 (1980) of ANCESTORS WEST has been prepared, but its length (7 pages) precluded inclusion in this issue. Research in Nebraska is another subject to be in the next issue. An Ancestral Chart showing Nebraska antecedents is solicited.

CENSUS RETURNS 1841 1851 1861 1871 ON MICROFILM - A Directory of Local Holdings. Third -1981- Edition. Compiled by J.S.F. Gibson, Harts Cottage, Church Hanborough, Oxford OX7 2AB, published by Gulliver Publishing Company and the Federation of Family History Societies., has been received with a request for review or notice in ANCESTORS WEST. It is available, price £1.20 + postage 20 p, airmail 75p, direct from the compiler.

The stated purpose of the Directory is to widen knowledge of local holdings of census records. For this reason no copyright is claimed and any library authority, family history society, or other organization is welcome to reprint parts without prior permission (though an acknowledgment of source would be appropriate and appreciated). The information has been provided freely by librarians and archivists, and it is the compiler's view that it is inappropriate, and renders no service to research and scholarship, to use the copyright law to restrict publication elsewhere.

Holdings at universities and colleges are included for information, but are not necessarily open to the public, being the private property of the institutions concerned. Access to them if granted at all, is a privilege which should be taken with gratitude, and not as a right. Their custodians have their first duty to their own staff and students, and may well decline to allow access to the public.

'The original books of enumerators' returns for the censuses of 1841, 1851, 1861 and 1871 are at the Public Record Office in London. These census records have attracted growing attention from social, local and family historians. To prevent their physical deterioration they were, some time ago, microfilmed, and it is these microfilms which visitprs to the P.R.O. now consult. At present (1981) the search room is still in central London, at the Old Land Registry Building in Portugal Street, a short distance from the main P.R.O. in Chancery Lane. However, there is a likelihood that in due course they will be transferred to the new building at Kew. No reader's ticket is necessary for consulting census material on microfilm.

"The existence of these microfilms has made it possible for libraries and record offices throughout the country to acquire copy films for their own areas, for one or more of the four census years open to the public under the '100 years' rule. This Directory shows the extent to which they have done so in England and Wales. It is a continuing process, and the Directory cannot help being out of date immediately. Nevertheless it will give a good idea of local holdings at the beginning of 1981.

"In the year since the second edition was issued many important acquisitions have been made, and once again this new edition has expanded by four pages. With the availability of the 1981 census from early 1982, libraries and records offices will be dramatically adding to their holdings, through the high cost of covering complete counties may mean some spreading their purchase over several years. It is hoped to gather information for a fourth edition, to include initial 1981 census holdings, about May 1982, for publication that autumn. Corrections and additions are always welcome.

"It should be emphasised that the information given depends much on the detail supplied by the library concerned, qualified by limitations of space. Thus straightforward-seeming 'complete county' entries may hide missing places on county borders, or include those in neighbouring counties. The hinterland of towns respects no boundaries, and former borough library holdings (for instance in Lancashire and the West Midlands) are often complex and intermingling. . . .

"Holdings at public libraries and record offices are normally available to the public without restriction. However, as use of a microfilm reader will be necessary, it is always advisable to make a prior appointment; and at the same time check that the information in the Directory is correct."

"The University of Edinburgh 1851 Census 'National Sample' Project
Information provided by Dr Michael Anderson, Reader in Sociology, Department of Sociology, University of Edinburgh, 18 Buccleuch Place, Edinburgh EH8 9LN (Tel. 031-667 1011).

The Department holds a National Sample from the 1851 Census of Great Britain. This is a two per cent clustered sample from the entire census. The only communities for which complete transcripts are available are those with populations under 2,000; thus the project includes one 'village' in every fifty for the whole country, and it is these which are listed under the heading 'University of Edinburgh' in each county section. The data are held in three basic forms:

1. A complete set of photocopies of all the sample information;
2. A complete set of transcriptions of these data in the form of computer print-out from the basic transcription file;
3. Machine-readable form which can be accessed for indexing and other purposes by a suite of computer programs. Anyone requiring access to the photocopies or the transcripts should contact Dr Anderson in advance."

BISHOPS TRANSCRIPTS AND MARRIAGE LICENCES BONDS AND ALLEGATIONS - A Guide to Their Location and Indexes, compiled by J. S. W. Gibson, Harts Cottage, Church Hanbrough, Oxford OX7 2AB Published 1981 by Gulliver Publishing Company, White Lion Walk, Banbury, Oxfordshire and the Federation of Family History Societies, 96 Beaumont Street, Milehouse, Plymouth PL2 3AQ, 32 pp. Price £1.00+postage.

Bishops' Transcripts, as their name implies, were returns to a Bishop (or occasionally an Archdeacon). There was no superior central authority (nor any equivalent return to the Archbishops, except as diocesans), so BFs are to be found only in record offices relating to specific localities, and are identified in the ensuing county section in this directory.

Marriage Licences, on the other hand, might be issued by the Archbishop of Canterbury, as Metropolitan and Primate, for any part of England and Wales; and by the Archbishop of York for any part of the northern province of York (in addition to those issued by bishops, archdeacons and their surrogates, for their own ecclesiastical jurisdictions). For convenience, the Archbishop of York's ML records are described under the section on Yorkshire, page 31.

The records of marriage (and divorce) of the Archbishop of Canterbury in the Lambeth Palace Library are described in a recent article in "The Genealogists Magazine" (vol. 20, no. 4, Dec. 1980), by Melanie Barber. The Archbishop was responsible for four distinct series of allegations, two very large collections being of national relevance.

These were the Faculty Office, which could authorise a marriage in any parish in England and Wales; and the Vicar General of the Archbishop of Canterbury, who issued licences to marry in any parish within the Province of Canterbury.

Quoting the Introduction by the compiler:

"This is a guide to the location of Bishops' Transcripts and of the records connected with the issue of Marriage Licences. It also describes any abstracts, calendars and indexes to the latter, published or unpublished, and, when these are lacking, gives an indication of the arrangement of the surviving original documents. For Bishops' Transcripts, reference is given to any lists of parishes living covering dates or more precise indication of exactly what years exist.

"It is not my purpose to discuss the history or content of these records, with which most users will be familiar before consulting this guide. They are described in all genealogical textbooks, and in particular by Donald Steel in the "National Index of Parish Registers", vol. 1 (1968), and by David E. Gardner and Frank Smith in "Genealogical Research in England and Wales", vol. 1 (1956).

"The location of the two classes of records can be conveniently described together, as both were, like probate records, connected with ecclesiastical jurisdictions. As a result, both are usually, though not always, in the same diocesan record offices. However, apart from both being ecclesiastical records, they have no administrative connection. The arrangement of this guide, like others I have produced, is by the pre-1974 historic English and Welsh counties, as it is with these administrative areas that historians deal.

"From the reign of Elizabeth I, Bishop's Transcripts (or Register Bills) were supposed to be returned annually, by the clergy of each parish, to the bishop, archdeacon or peculiar authority. Their survival has varied widely, as described under each county heading. There is invariably a gap for the period of the Civil War and the Commonwealth (the 1640s and 1650s), as diocesan and similar authority was suspended or abolished at that time (and this is the case with Marriage Licence records too). It will be found that after the introduction of civil registration in 1837 only baptisms and burials are usually returned, and the submission of the transcripts, in general, died out in the later nineteenth century. It should always be borne in mind that Bishops' Transcripts are likely to be a less than full copy of the actual Registers, and where possible these should be consulted too.

"Marriage Licences themselves will only survive by chance, as they were issued to the groom for presentation to the parson conducting the marriage. The records of use to historians are those that were retained in the issuing office, bonds, allegations and registers of licences. These may contain, variously, in addition to the names of the groom and bride, the groom's occupation, the places in which each lived and where the marriage was to take place, their ages (particularly if minors), and the names and occupations of bondsmen (often relatives). The exact details can be ascertained from the reference books mentioned, and, as in all historical records, information that should be given often may be found to be missing.

"It should be borne in mind that Marriage Licences were used by a wide social strata - not merely nobility and gentry, but by almost anyone with claims to standing above labouring class; moreover, until Hardwicke's Act came into operation in 1754 it seems almost to have been customary, for those with such pretensions, to marry away from their home parishes, often in the neighbouring market or county town. ... a Licence did not mean that the marriage necessarily took place. ..."

CENSUS INDEXES AND INDEXING, ed. Jeremy Gibson and Colin Chapman, Federation of Family History Societies, 1981 (£ 1.00 plus postage) is designed to be used by those contemplating preparation of indexes of Census Returns, discusses use of microfilm, coding of information in transcriptions, even though omitted from the index itself, reviews projects conducted by various county societies in England, locating previous transcriptions which may have been made, checking against the original microfilm, standard abbreviations used, method to be pursued - full transcriptions and indexing or a condensed form (the system being used by societies in Bedfordshire, Doncaster, North-West Kent and Northamptonshire, amongst others as reported by Colin Chapman) computer indexing for larger areas and manual index for more rural parts of Surrey, indexing names/ages with a Published Index Guide, as done by the Bristol and Avon Family History Society, or publishing a surnames only index (Nottinghamshire Family History Society). Existing Census Indexes are listed as are Indexing Projects in Progress or Planned (pp. 33-36. A form of transcription sheet is reproduced, is designed to be cut into slips for alphabetizing and is available for purchase from the Federation..

TRACING YOUR ANCESTORS IN MINNESOTA: A Guide to the Sources, Vol. 1, by Wiley R. Pope and Alissa L. Wainer, 2nd ed. revised and enlarged by Wiley R. Pope, Minnesota Family Trees, 718 Sims Ave., St. Paul, MN 551606., 228 pages, $12.50, plus postage $1.00. In furnishing a review copy, Mr. Pope stressed the fact that many county records are being transferred to the State Archives. In the case of court records being transferred, the court retains the index.

Vol. 2, by Wiley R. Pope and others, about 125 pages, is a supplement for the counties of Blue Earth, Brown, Faribault, Freeborn, LeSueur, Martin, Nicollet, Rice, Sibley, Steele, Waseca, Watonwan and includes information as to records in the county courthouses, local libraries, The Minnesota Historical Society's Manuscripts Collections, Newspaper Library, Reference Library and State Archives. It is available for $6.50 plus $1.00 postage for the first book ordered and $.50 for each additional book included in one order.

Vol. 1, 2d ed., is the first of a projected series. It contains a guide to starting a family history, many useful forms, some copyrighted by Everton Publishers, with completed examples to give more explicit guidance. Much of the volume is directed toward an uninitiated user with little knowledge of research methods or available resources. Early records are discussed and the diversity of possible locations, with specific suggestions relating to Minnesota records. Naturalization records are noted as among the few which may list the town an immigrant came from as well as the ship, port and date of arrival in the United States. Attention is called to the U. S. Immigration Service index of naturalizations beginning 27 Sept. 1906 and that in 1972 permission was granted to make uncertified copies of naturalization records. Cemetery records are discussed, with suggestions for a "Cemetery Kit" for making rubbings. There are many lists of organizations, libraries, genealogical and historical societies, maps showing changes in boundaries and areas within the borders, census charts, etc. There are several pages of footnotes and an index

More detailed coverage of the Minnesota area from 1654-1975 commences at page 64. There is little recorded on the earliest settlers - the Dakota and Chippewa Indians. Earliest non-Indians were fur traders, explorers and the military. Much information in not printed but can be located in manuscript collections. By 1836 parts of Minnesota were included in census records. As counties were formed, land records and marriage records began to be kept. In 1870 there were birth and death records also. Also to be consulted are church and cemetery records. City directories for the larger cities from 1860's; many county atlases, some including maps showing names and location of landowners in the 1870's, and by 1900 there were many county histories. In 1907 the Minnesota vital records law was passed for registration of births and deaths. Earlier records may be found in court houses of the county where the event occurred. The Minnesota Historical Society has the most complete collection of genealogical and historical manuscripts and published works. Less extensive collections are in many large libraries. Many genealogical societies have recently been formed.

A section is given to BIRTH RECORDS OF ADOPTED PERSONS. (see p. 75)

In 1977 a Minnesota statute was enacted, whereby a request may be filed by an adopted person born in Minnesota and 21 years or age or older with the State Registrar of Vital Statistics, 717 Delaware St. S.E., Minneapolis, MN 55440, for information on his/her original birth certificate. The Commissioner of Public Welfare, through the local agency, has 6 months to locate and notify birth parent(s) of the request. They then have 120 days to file a consent or refusal. If one refuses or fails to be located the record remains sealed, but the adopted person may petition the court for a decision on whether the information can be released to him or her. There is some variance between pre and post Aug. 1, 1977 records' availability.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY

One of California's 27 original counties. While the county was actually created in 1850, the history of the area dates back to 1542. In that year Juan Cabrillo discovered the Santa Barbara Channel and later, according to legend crossed to San Miguel Island, where he died and was buried. A second Spanish explorer, Sebastian Vizcaino, entered the channel on the Feast Day of Saint Barbara in 1602 and named the area accordingly. Fr. Junipero Serra founded the Santa Barbara mission in 1786. Santa Barbara Royal Presidio, established April 21, 1782, was the last of four royal presidios in Alta California - San Diego, Monterey, San Francisco and Santa Barbara. Santa Barbara had all three Spanish forms- Presidio representing the military; Pueblo, civil and Mission, religious.

In 1873 Ventura County was established from the southern portion of the original Santa Barbara area.
