OUR ROOTS

CAROL FORBES ROTH

In the fall of 1972 a small group of women in the Goleta Newcomers met under the leadership of Cathy Maddux to learn how to trace their ancestors. As our enthusiasm for research grew, the possibility was discussed of uniting with others having the same passion. As there was no other group of this persuasion in Santa Barbara, a notice was put in the Santa Barbara newspaper inviting all interested to join us in discussing the idea of a society.

On the 27th of November 1972 twenty-eight people met at Cathy's home and the Santa Barbara Genealogical Society was born. Officers were elected and bi-monthly meetings were set up with one on a Monday evening and another on a Monday morning.

During the first year many workshops were held in members' homes with everyone bringing their books, information and skill to share. Our first of many speakers was Lillian Fish, who later joined our growing membership and has now become the efficient editor of our quarterly. The highlight of the year was a luncheon sponsored by the society and an all-day workshop with Mr. George B. Everton, Jr. of Everton Publishers as key speaker.

By November of 1973 we were meeting at the Goleta Library and with donations of books had begun a small "traveling library". Our first newsletter was published in October, 1972. That month also saw the printing of a computerized index of surnames members were researching.

By 1974 we were sixty strong. Our quarterly newsletter, besides keeping members informed of society activities, included such things as queries, lists of members' personal libraries, an index of localities being searched by members and a continuing update of our Surname Index. By the end of 1974 our meetings were unified into one all-day workshop on the first Saturday of the month and this continues to be our practice.

In December of 1974 our newsletter gained an editor in Judith Katzmark, and became a full-fledged quarterly. It was aptly named "Ancestors West" and an outstanding cover was designed by Jan Kirkwood. Our members began the task of copying Santa Barbara County birth, marriage, death, and probate records and these continue to be published in our quarterly.

Today we have a new location at the Goleta Community Center. Our membership has grown to 92 and our library includes 480 volumes and 100 periodicals. Our quarterly is exchanged with 90 other societies. We continue to meet on the first Saturday of the month and our library is also open on Wednesdays from 12 noon to 4 p.m. As our membership grows our search continued for adequate facilities to house our meetings and our rapidly growing library.

SECOND ANNUAL HISTORY FAIR - April 24-25, 1982

More than 190 students of senior and junior high schools throughout Santa Barbara County exhibited a wide range of projects at UCSB in the second annual Santa Barbara County History Fair.

First place was awarded to Alexandra Wilkinson, of Santa Barbara High School for her paper on the Eastern Orthodox Church.

Second places went to Kristen Hatch, another SEHS student, for her Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History project and Greg Knudson of the same school for his presentation of the Naples resort subdivision which never materialized.

Among those representing Santa Maria High School was a junior, Vonda Coykendall, who based her project on family memorabilia, including the 1905 class year book of her grandmother at Santa Maria High School, and photographs which came to Vonda from her father. Her display won honors.

Heidi Schultz, a junior at Bishop Garcia Diego High School, won a third place in the senior division, based on her study of the history of water use in the county. She found that a major water project, such as a dam or tunnel, was built whenever a period of drought coincided with a rise in population.

Others winning prizes were Danielle and Chris Hurdle of St. Joseph's High School in Santa Maria; Andy Watson, Becky Euxoth, Indra Bhattachar and Holly King, all of Santa Barbara High School; Eileen Foster of LaColina Junior High School, Santa Barbara, and Linda Dweley of Goleta Valley Union High School.

Attention to detail and skill in assembling and displaying the many models was an inducement to retrace steps through the exhibit hall. The students, their leaders, teachers and sponsors are to be congratulated.

BRITAIN, ANCESTRAL HOME OF MANY AMERICANS

FRANK B. SMITH

At the March meeting of SBOGS, member Frank Smith outlined the sequence of changes in population and development of language in Britain, the ancestral home of many Americans.

The languages have been Pict, Celt, Latin, Vulgar German, Saxon, Anglian, Danish, Old Norse, French, Old English, Anglo-Saxon, but not in that order.

- B. C.
3000-1000 Short, dark people from southwestern Europe invaded Britain and enslaved or drove out the natives.
- 1000 B. C. The Picts, a fairer people, came from France and invaded Britain successfully. Drove the south Europeans out into the mountains or they stayed as servants of the Picts. The Picts were ancestors of many of the Scots, Welch and Irish Mountaineers who would not stay as servants.
- 700-800 B.C. Celts, a fair-haired tribe, invaded and ruled until the Roman legions took over the tin mines and London and shortly thereafter all of England. Many of the Celts went to Ireland and the neighboring islands and Northumberland.
- 35 B. C. to 34 A. D. The Roman Legions took over and built roads and Cathedrals, brought some Christianity and ruled until about 350 A. D.
- 410 A. D. Visigoths sacked Rome and for the next 30 years the Romans were leaving Britain. About 389 St. Patrick started an Evangelistic Campaign in the Northern Counties and was successful until his demise in 461. While the Romans were worried about Rome, the Visigoths had overrun Spain also.
- 5th-6th centuries As soon as the Romans left, West German soldier-farmers raided the East Coast of England every year, carried off loot and eventually ran the Celts out and settled there. These were mostly Saxons.
- 6th-7th centuries Anglians, also farmer-soldiers, raided as Vikings moved the Saxons south and west. Any Celts remaining now were servants as they had to learn the newcomers' language although at home they still used the Celtic language. They did not try hard to conquer Wales nor the Scot Highlands.
- 8th Century Vikings, including Norsemen, invaded Ireland which had no army and set up a Capitol in Dublin, whence they raided the Northern Counties of England each Spring and under Danelaw collected tribute.
- 853 King Alfred the Great (the only King called the Great) built a Navy and with other lesser Kings and Barons met and defeated the Raiders and broke their power. The language was now Old English or a combination of Anglian and Saxon called Anglo-Saxon.
- 1066 Battle of Hastings. Vikings, who had overrun the Gauls in France, with 12,000 armed men took over England's 2,000,000 people. Anglo-Norman language now the official language, Latin in Church and French in Court. The Normans seized all valuable properties plus churches and gave them to their cohorts, but they did build the Tower of London, etc.
- 1169-1172 Conquest of Ireland
- 1250-1300 Middle English
- 13th-14th Century The average man now sues his neighbor in French in Court, prays in Latin at Church and spanks his children in Anglo-Saxon as bottom, buttucks, rump and butt have German roots.
- 1385 All grammar schools learneth English.
- With the collapse of the Norman language the country was split into two major pronunciations - Liverpool to London, East or West. West and South added vowels no-noe, Anglian Heven, Saxon Heofon.
- Comments on American accents:
Pronunciation of New England areas found in Chesapeake Bay. New Englanders also settled New Jersey in 1665. The North Carolina-Brooklyn dialect is Yorkshire.
- Do not attempt to correct anyone's pronunciation, as wherever you are or wherever they came from, that is the proper way to say it. 220,000 Londoners and 4 1/2 million others try to imitate them Anglo and Saxon were joined in Holy Wordlock many years ago.

SANTA BARBARA BICENTENNIAL

On Wednesday, April 21, 1982, the founding of the Santa Barbara Royal Presidio was observed at the Presidio Chapel site commencing with a Mass by Father Virgil Cordano of the Old Mission in the manner of that presented by Fra Junipero Serra in 1782, with blessing of the reconstructed Padre's quarters, placing of adobe bricks bearing names of various officials, participation of Mayor Sheila Lodge (Santa Barbara's first woman mayor) elected in last year's contest; greetings from the Spanish consul general Paz, followed by slide shows from time to time during the day, a reception in El Paseo, and in the late afternoon or early evening, a buffet style supper at the Presidio site.

Earlier observances included the well attended Parade on Saturday afternoon, in which one of the most interesting exhibits or floats was one in which one of the five canon recently recovered off Goleta and now under observation and study - and cleaning - at UCSB, raising the question, Where did Sir Francis Drake land? Was it actually in the Santa Barbara area and not in the San Francisco Bay region? The parade was followed by gatherings in Alameda Park, where various organizations set up refreshment and information booths.

On Sunday Afternoon (April 18), Reina del Mar Parlor 124, Native Daughters of the Golden West unveiled a plaque at the Cota adobe just outside the north Presidio walland served refreshments to those attending and viewing the adobe. This adobe was built after 1800. Santiago de la Cruz Pico, who arrived in California with the 1776 de Anza Expedition, founded the prominent Pico family. Pio and Andres Pico were his grandsons. Santiago served at the Santa Barbara Presidio; after retiring from the military he was granted Rancho Simi in 1795. Santiago's son, Jose Miguel, was mayordomo of Mission San Buenaventura. The one-room adobe has modern bath, kitchen, storage added. In 1850 Miguel's son, Buenaventura, married Ana Cordero in Santa Barbara, and they resided in the adobe. The adobe was acquired by the Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation in 1976.

The scheduled visit of the King and Queen of Spain in February, 1981 having been postponed due to resignation of the Prime Minister and the death of the Queen's mother and unstable political conditions, the unveiling of the statue of King Carlos III by Miss Frederica Dibblee Poett, a de la Guerra descendant, took place later in the day. Principal speaker was Paul Mills, then Director of the Santa Barbara Museum of Art (retiring later this year) and a trustee of the Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation who for several years had been working on this project, both in this country and in Spain.

On the following Sunday afternoon (April 25) a reception was held at the Santa Barbara Historical Society Museum, with intriguing exhibits, docents' tours, and champagne, punch and cookies in the patio. The main attraction was the cutting of the birthday cake (see illustration in this issue). Two hundred small green candles decorated two cakes at either side of the remarkable replica in cake and icing of the Presidio quadrangle. Baked by Henning Kjar, the recipe called for 32 pounds of sugar, 70 eggs, 14 pounds of shortening and 14 pounds of flour. Mr. Kjar was present and when asked said it took 26 hours to bake and decorate. Everything from the red tile roof to the rice wafer doors and windows was edible, except the wood peg posts along the corridors. There also were candy rocks and walls to give an air of realism to the landscaping, which also included Indian brush huts made of delectable cupcakes.

As an American city Santa Barbara began its legal existence on April 9, 1850, incorporated by an act of the first California legislature five months before there actually was any State of California. Admission Day did not dawn until September 9, 1850. The old Ayuntamiento (municipal government) had served well enough the needs of the people and the Common Council did not convene until Aug. 26, 1850. Francisco de la Guerra was the first Mayor. The last alcalde was Don Joaquin de la Guerra. Under Spanish rule, Santa Barbara had all three forms: the Presidio representing the Military, Pueblo, civil government, and the Mission, religious. The King did not grant any land titles to individuals. Grazing rights were at Refugio to the Ortegas. Mexico made grants, confirmed by U.S. (see pp. 58-59).

The above is reprinted from ANCESTORS WEST, Vol. 5, No. 3, p. 79, in order that readers without reference to previous numbers may have available a list of the soldados de cuera and of the Indian attendants who accompanied them from Loreto.

Margaret Burke Bennett, daughter of the Edmund Burke who translated the list written in Spanish by Rev. Juan Caballeria y Collell, for many years has researched and memorialized the early families of Santa Barbara as a volunteer for the Santa Barbara Historical Society Museum and Library. Her advice and sharing of knowledge is most gratefully recognized by the editor of ANCESTORS WEST.

In recent years and even since the publication in an earlier issue of ANCESTORS WEST of an article by member Wilberta Finley, based in part on an even earlier article in Noticias, the Santa Barbara Historical publication, more definite data is being revealed - some from church records being disclosed or discovered through efforts of the Santa Barbara Mission Archives, and Our Lady of Sorrows records as successor to the Presidio Chapel as a parish church. Therefore, in the interest of accuracy and thoroughness, it was deemed advisable not to try to reprint previously published lists of early Santa Barbara families, and rather to present items relating to the establishment of the Presidio.

 QUERIES ARE READ AND ANSWERED - Emily Perry Thies

For years I had searched for the parents of Mehitable who married Stephen Bryant, born 2 Feb 1658 Plymouth Mass. A query in the December 1981 ANCESTORS WEST brought me the family name and date of birth: Mehitable Standish, born 1659 Plymouth Mass. She must be a descendant of Capt. Myles Standish! An article in NEGER April 1933 titled: The Children and grandchildren of Capt. Myles Standish, by Merton Taylor Goodrich, M. A., of Keene, N.H. indicates Mehitable is the daughter of Josias (written Josiah later in life) born ca 1633, died Preston, Ct. 19 March 1690 and his second wife Sarah Allen, who was born 30 March 1639, survived her husband. Sarah was the daughter of Samuel and Ann Allen of Braintree, Mass. Josias was probably the sixth child of Capt. Myles Standish and his second wife, Barbara. He was the second of two sons who left descendants. Any further information welcomed.

THE ROYAL PRESIDIO OF SANTA BARBARA

In the April 21, 1982, issue of the Santa Barbara News-Press a recently discovered previously unknown 1820 map, detailing changes made from 1788 to 1820, was reproduced. The map sheds light on a controversial issue - whether the Presidio chapel had a bell tower originally or a campanario as shown in the Alden painting of 1855 (A cross arm supported by two posts in front of the chapel, from which two bells hung). The map shows, superimposed on the chapel, the word "torrecita" meaning little tower.

In an article entitled SOLDIERS AND SETTLERS OF THE EXPEDITION OF 1781, in Historical Society of Southern California Annual Publications, Vol. 15, pp. 98-116, Thomas Workman Temple II states "a complete list is now given for the first time, and the particulars concerning the families were taken from Mission Registers at San Gabriel, San Buenaventura and Santa Barbara, and from the manuscript copies in the Bancroft Library of the Spanish archives of California, destroyed by the fire of 1906. In giving the members of the families we enumerate only the children accompanying the expedition. Many more were born in California."

At pages 100-104 is a list of Pobladores (settlers) of El Pueblo de Los Angeles, numbering 14. Those with Santa Barbara connections are:

(1) ANTONIO CLEMENTE FELIZ VILLAVICENCIO, 30, native of Chiguagua Chihuahua, the first popldor to answer the call; he enlisted at Villa Sinaloa, Sonora, May 30, 1780. His wife was MARIE DE LOS SANTOS SEFERINA, 26, a native of El Real de Batopilá, in the Archbishopric of Durango. They brought an adopted daughter, MARIA ANTONIA JOSEFA PINUELAS, 8, native of La Villa de Sinaloa, child of Francisco Piquelas, deceased, and Maria Alcaras, of said Villa. She married Vicente Quijada, a soldier of the expedition, and widower of Juana Mendoza, on January 20, 1785 at San Gabriel Mission. In the census of the Pueblo for 1785, he is designated as a "labrador" or laborer and five years later as a "vaquero."

(2) ANTONIO MESA, 38, native of Los Alamos, Sonora. He enlisted at Villa Sinaloa June 4, 1780; his wife was MARIA ANA GERTRUDIS LOPEZ, 27, born at same place. Their children were ANTONIO MARIA, 8, and MARIA PAULA, 10. This was one of the families expelled from the Pueblo some six months after its founding (21 Mar. 1782)....

(3) RAFAEL MESA, native of Los Alamos, who enlisted June 12, 1780, but deserted on October 10th of the same year. He did not come with the expedition, but seems to have been apprehended and brought to California later. He claimed to have enlisted as a soldier, but Lieutenant Ortega excluded him from the Santa Barbara Company, on the grounds of his having deserted as a poblador, (on December 2, 1781). There is no evidence that he remained in California, and was a brother of Antonio, supra (No. 2 Antonio was expelled 21 March 1782).

(4) JOSEF FERNANDO DE VELASCO Y LARA, 50, a native of the Port of Cadiz, Spain, and his wife, MARIA ANTONIA CAMPOS, 23, native of la Villa de Sinaloa. He served as a padrino or godfather, for the Indian neophytes confirmed by Fr. Junipero Serra at San Gabriel, on March 22nd and 25th of 1782.

This was, incidentally, Serra's first visit to the young Pueblo. He spent the night of the 18th at the village, which he endearingly called "La Porciuncula."

Lara enlisted at la Villa de Sinaloa June 24, 1780. On March 21, 1782 he was expelled from the Pueblo and joined the expedition to establish the Presidio of Santa Barbara on March 26, 1782. He died shortly afterwards there and his widow married Luis Gonzaga Lugo, a soldier of the Presidio and a veteran of 1769. There were 3 children, JOSEF JULIAN, 4, who married MARIA ANTONIA MORENO, daughter of the pobladores Josef Moreno and Guadalupe Perex, at Santa Barbara; MARIA JUANA DE JUSUS, 6, who married NICOLAS FELIPE, son of Josef Xavier Cortes, deceased and Maria Nicolasa Ramirez, of the same expedition, at Santa Barbara; MARIA FAUSTINA, 2, born at Cozala. She married at Santa Barbara, JOSEF FRANCISCO SOLORZANO, a native of Acapulco, a soldier at the Presidio. The only child born in California, JOSEF YGNACIO MATEO, was baptized October 30, 1782, at the Santa Barbara Presidio, the second white child to be so honored.

(8) JOSEF ANTONIO NAVARRO, 42, native of el Real del Rosario, where he enlisted August 21, 1780. His wife, also born at Rosario was, MARIA REGINA DOROTEA GLORIA DE SOTO Y RODRIGUEZ, 47. There were three children, JOSEF MARIA EDUARDO, 10, who died single; JOSEF CLEMENTE, 9, who married Maria del Carmen Rochin, May 15, 1791, at San Gabriel. She was a daughter of Ygnacio Rochin and Ana Maria Ejqorquez, members of the same expedition, and natives of Los Alamos, Sonora. Clemente was a soldier of the Santa Barbara Presidio, where most of his children were born.

A third child was MARIANA JOSEFA, 4, who accompanied her father to the Presidio of San Francisco, before 1790, and married at Santa Clara Mission, on October 30, 1791, Juan Josef Higuera, son of Manuel Higuera and Antonia Redondo, pobladores of the Pueblo of San Josef de Guadalupe. Navarro was a "maestro sastré," or tailor by trade, and died at San Francisco September 3, 1793.

Maria Regina Soto, Spanish, died February 17, 1785 at San Gabriel. (footnote) The Mission record reads "Ms. Regina Soto espanola, d 17 Feb. 1785. S. G.) She doubtless was the wife of Navarro, above.

(10) ANTONIO ROSALINO ROSAS, 7, (child of JOSEF ANTONIO BASILIO ROSAS, 67, a native of Fresnillo, in the Archbishopric of Durango, and his wife, MARIA MANUELA CALISTRA HERNANDEZ, 43, native of Rosario) who married Maria Petra Maxima Lugo, daughter of Luis Gonzaga Lugo and Maria Antonia Campos, on May 23, 1802 at Santa Barbara Mission.

(13) LUIS QUINTERO, 55, a native of Los Alamos, Sonora, where he enlisted on February 3, 1781, on Rivera's return to Alamos from the south, and evidently the last poblador to sign on the dotted line. His wife was MARIA PETRA RUBIO, 40, also from Los Alamos.

Quintero also served as a "padrino" or God-father for the Indians confirmed by Fr. Junipero Serra, at San Gabriel on March 22nd and 25th, 1782. He was the third poblador to be expelled from the Pueblo, and like Lara, joined the Santa Barbara expedition, which left San Gabriel March 26, 1782. He lived at the Presidio of Santa Barbara, where many of his children were married. Five children, including an adopted daughter, came with him and his wife. They were -

MARIA GERTRUDIS CASTELO, 16, daughter of Nicolas Castelo and Rita Gertrudis Valenzuela, natives of Los Alamos, who came as an adopted daughter, and married DOMINGO ARUZ, a Catalan Volunteer, on November 12, 1782, at San Buenaventura Mission.

MARIA CONCEPCION, 9, who married JOSEF MIGUEL FLORES Y CANDOVAL, a soldier of the Santa Barbara Presidio, on December 26, 1782, at San Buenaventura.

MARIA TOMASA, 7, who married RAFAEL GONZALES DE LA CRUZ, soldier of Santa Barbara, on December 21, 1785, at San Buenaventura Mission.

MARIA RAFAELA, 6, who died at Santa Barbara Presidio, on July 5, 1783.

JOSEF CLEMENTE, 3, married Maria Josepha Rodriguez y Parra, November 30, 1799, at Santa Barbara.

Another daughter was MARIA CATHARINA, 16, who was married to Joaquin Rodriguez, a soldier of the same expedition. MARIA JOSEFA QUINTERO, 18, who was married to Josef Rosalino Fernandez, of the expedition, and FABIANA SEBASTIANA, 15, married to Eugenio Valdez, soldier of the expedition, were also daughters of Quintero.

Quintero was a tailor by trade, and lived for a long time at Santa Barbara, where he died.

(14) MIGUEL VILLA, of whom nothing is known except that he enlisted in Sonora, and deserted before the expedition got to Loreto. He never came to California, although a soldier with the same name, Juan Josef Villa, native of San Miguel de Horcasitas, was among the soldiers destined for the Presidio of Santa Barbara.

Of the above-mentioned pobladores, all but Miguel Villa, Rafael Mesa, and Antonio Miranda Rodriguez, arrived at San Gabriel August 18, 1781, and became the founders of el Pueblo de Nuestra Señora de los Angeles del Rio Porciuncuina; All began to draw rations and receive pay on their arrival at San Gabriel.

OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS WHO ACCOMPANIED RIVERA' AND ARRIVED AT SAN GABRIEL
JULY 14, 1781 (pp. 108-116)

(1) JOSEF DARIO ARGUELLO, 28, native of Queretaro, and his wife, MARIA YGNACIA MORAGA, native of the Presidio of Altar, Sonora. She was a niece of Lieutenant Josef Joaquin Moraga, the founder of San Francisco who came with Anza in 1776.

Don Josef enlisted in the Mexico regiment of Dragoons in 1773, joined the Presidial Company of Altar, where he served as private for 6 years, sergeant for 2 years and a half, until he was commissioned Alferes of the company just organized by Rivera for the proposed Presidio of Santa Barbara in 1781. He accompanied Rivera on the march overland, left him on the Colorado, and with Lieutenant Diego Gonzales and the company of soldiers and families, arrived at San Gabriel on July 14, 1781. He remained at San Gabriel until the expedition left to found the Santa Barbara Presidio on March 26, 1782. He went south to San Diego, with the soldiers of the new company destined for the San Diego Presidio, where he witnessed their enlistment.

His first public task of importance was as comisionado appointed by Governor Fages to distribute Pueblo lands to the settlers of Los Angeles in August of 1786. The following year he was promoted to Lieutenant of the San Francisco company in February, and took that office in June. He served as Commandante of San Francisco until 1791, and again from April 1796 until July 1806, having occupied that same post at Monterey from 1791-96. In October of 1791 he was present at the dedication of Soledad Mission. He was promoted brevet Captain in October of 1797, comisionado received February of the following year. He was made Captain of the Santa Barbara company on March 22, 1807, by the King, in consideration of his merits and services.

Arguello was as prominent and important a man as California could boast of in the years of his busy life. On the death of Governor Arrillaga in July 1814, he became acting Governor, being the ranking officer in California. He still remained in Santa Barbara however as Commandante and did not move to Monterey. It was no doubt a matter of great disappointment to Arguello and his friends that he was not made Governor. Instead he was commissioned on December 31, 1814, to govern the barren peninsula of Lower California.

Arguello's children were born in California. The oldest, JOSEF YGNACIO MAXIMO, baptized at San Gabriel June 8, 1782, became the first native Californian to enter the priesthood. He was educated in Mexico, visited California in 1809, when he served at the dedication of the San Buenaventura Mission on September 9th, also saying a mass at San Gabriel.

LUIS ANTONIO the second son became Governor of California. He was born at San Francisco June 21, 1784.

SANTIAGO and GERVASIO became equally prominent, and left many children to carry on the glorious name, allied with many others of prominence, both native Californian and American.

MARIA DE LA CONCEPCION MARCELA, is widely known for her romance with the Russian, Rezanof.

He was single, and left no family.

(37) PEDRO GABRIEL VALENZUELA, 23, native of Los Alamos, and his wife MARIA DOLORES PARRA, 20, also of Alamos. They brought no children, but 12 were born here, uniting by marriage with the Varelas, Feliz, Rodriguez and Ybarra families.

(38) YGNACIO ROCHIN, 28, native of Los Alamos, and his wife ANA BOJORQUEZ, 30, also of Alamos. He joined the Santa Barbara Company and in 1790 was mayordomo of the San Juan Capistrano Mission. Children -

MARIA DEL CARMEN, 2, who married Josef Clemente Navarro, son of the pobladores Josef Antonio Navarro and Maria Regina de Soto, on May 15, 1791, at San Gabriel.

(39) JOSEF PRUDENCIO ARANGURE, is named as a recruit, and on the Santa Barbara Presidio rolls for October 24th and 30th, 1781. But his name as well as those of Francisco Ontiveros, Francisco Juarez and Josef Javier Cortes, disappear from the rolls by July 1, 1782. I have no further record of Arangure and Ontiveros. Cortes and Juarez were on the death list as shown above. (Cortes No. 9, p. 111, Officers and Soldiers) (Francisco Juarez No. 18, p. 113)

From a list of recruits drawn up by Lieut. Ortega at San Gabriel on October 24, 1781, we find the names of 5 soldiers of the expedition who were killed on the Colorado with Rivera as follows - FRANCISCO CASTRO/ ANTONIO PARDO/ MANUEL DIAZ/ JOSEF QUIJAS/ ASCENCIO ALVAREZ, whose wife was Micaela Uribe, and whose son Buenaventura seems to have come in the expedition, joined the Santa Barbara Company and married Juana Valenzuela, at San Gabriel on September 6, 1807.

On the same list, we find that on that date, Prudencio Lopez, Ygnacio Rochin and Isidro German had deserted after reaching California. They returned however and we find them at Santa Barbara Presidio by the following year.

ANCESTORS TABLE

Additions and Corrections, Chart 7 LILLIAN MANN FISH, 2546 Murrell Road,
Santa Barbara, CA 93109

Although submitted to the previous editor, the names of later husbands of over 50 female ancestors were not included in the 13-page chart printed in ANCESTORS WEST, Vol. 4, No. 2, pp.50-64, June, 1978. This list was prepared as an exhibit to be posted at the Tenth Anniversary celebration of Santa Barbara County Genealogical Society on May 1, 1982. The importance of including in charts the name under which an ancestor died is vitally important. For convenience of reference the number and name of spouse shown in the chart is shown. (I) indicates Immigrant Ancestor.

STOUT FAMILY REUNION

Descendants of Richard and Penelope Van Princis Stout will hold their annual reunion at Calvary Baptist Church, Hopewell, New Jersey, August 14, 1982 beginning at 10 A. M. Penelope, granddaughter of William I of Orange, arrived in New Amsterdam 1623, married Richard Stout 1624. She bore seven sons and three daughters and lived to be 100, with 502 descendants. Sons were Jonathan, John, Richard, James, Peter, David and Benjamin who married into Bullen, Crawford, Ashton and Traux families, Daughters, Sarah, Alice and Mary married into Bounden, Pike, Throckmorton and Skelton families. Many of these families moved from New Jersey to Ohio Territory when it was opened, and then on West. Descendants are found in Nebraska, Kansas and California, as well as Texas, as these territories were opened.

All pathfinders of the world have been made from restless, pushing material. All patriotic citizens should take as much pride in being Founders' kin as in tracing descent from Charlemagne. Source of this "quote" not known.

THEY CAME TO SANTA BARBARA

LUTAH MARIA RIGGS As an Indiana high school student, she read a newspaper ad for building lots on the shore of Lake Michigan and began to dream of building a small summer cottage on one of those lots. She never got to Michigan, but made up her mind to become an architect. In 1914 she and her mother traveled by rail to Santa Barbara to join her stepfather. She enrolled in the junior college which was conducted in one room of the old Santa Barbara High School, and earned her tuition as a book-keeper for Woolworth's. Her goal was to attend the U C Berkeley architectural school. Opportunity presented itself in the form of a scholarship contest conducted by the Daily News, predecessor of the News-Press. T. M. Storke, the publisher, offered to provide living and tuition money for one year of college to the person who sold the most Daily News subscriptions. Miss Riggs says she walked clear to Carpinteria and stopped at every house on the way. Through much hard work she won the contest. She earned money to continue by spending her summers waiting on tables in a nearby camp. While working in the Northern California town of Susanville after graduation in 1919, she saw a picture of a house designed by George Washington Smith of Santa Barbara. Returning to Santa Barbara, she became associated with him. Then for awhile she was a schoolmarm in a one-room school on the pass to Ojai. Then while Smith and his wife were on a trip to New York she managed his office, and once back served as his chief designer until his death in 1931. Some of the buildings she designed included two houses for Wright Luddington, an office building on El Paseo for GE Tempo, a residence for the Baron Von Romberg, and the Vedanta Temple. During World War II she designed movie sets for MGM and Warner Brothers. She returned to Santa Barbara and opened an office at her home, an Andalusian-style house she designed for herself in 1925. Miss Riggs has been distinguished by many honors. In 1961 she was appointed to the State Board of Architectural Examiners, in 1962 she was one of nine recipients of the Woman of the Year award sponsored by the Los Angeles Times. Many buildings stand as a tribute to her determined spirit and will to succeed. One of them, the Lobero Theatre is now being relandscaped.

COLONEL WALTER MERENBACH (USA,Ret.) is extremely proud of his DAR AMERICANISM MEDAL, awarded in 1971 by the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, through Rodeo de Las Aguas Chapter, of Beverly Hills, California, and presented at the State Conference in San Francisco that year. Requisite qualifications are that the recipient of the one medal awarded annually by the national society must be an adult, naturalized citizen, who has displayed trustworthiness, service, leadership and patriotism. His great-grandfather, Count Voldemar de Mirbach was an agricultural specialist from the principality of Mirbach, located in the vicinity of Dusseldorf, Germany, invited by Tsar Alexander II of Russia to develop grain growing lands in the Crimea by the shores of the Black Sea. His father was well known as an exporter of grain and wheat and his uncle owned several flour mills. Sometime after 1850, the name was changed to Merenbach. After the overthrow of Tsar Nicholas II in 1917 and a reign of terror by the Bolsheviks, his father was condemned to death, their home and granaries burned, he, his mother and two sisters fled across Siberia to Harbin, Manchuria, China, reaching that place a month later. Two older brothers were already in California, attending UC. They volunteered for overseas duty. After the war, the family was reunited in San Francisco in 1919, the father having miraculously escaped from Russia to China. Walter attended high school in San Francisco and in 1929 graduated with B. S. degree in Business Administration and Foreign Trade. He was naturalized 16 July 1925 at Bakersfield, California. In 1934 married Eula Mae Schlatter, an Indiana girl and graduate of University of Southern California with a Master's degree in Speech Arts and Theology. They have one son, Dennis, now a practicing attorney in Santa Barbara. He has an impressive array of decorations and citations - Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, and Commendation Ribbon and the DAR Americanism Medal. Both he and his wife have been active in Officer Reserve activities and have served in positions of leadership. He is a past commander of American Legion and adjutant of Beverly Hills Post #253; past commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars, and past president of Los Angeles and Beverly Hills Chapters of the R. O. A. and the California Department Executive Committee of R.O. A. She received a citation from the California State Department of the American Legion for her work on behalf of Universal Military Training.

BOOK REVIEW

HAYES AND ALLIED FAMILIES OF GLOUCESTER COUNTY, VIRGINIA, compiled by Melinde L. Hatfield, 2629 Belmont, Eugene, Oregon 97404, 1982, 279 pages; Index, pp 248-279. Copies are obtainable through the compiler.

It is with some degree of hesitation and trepidation that this review is undertaken. The editor is not a disinterested person. The compiler is a relative - first cousin twice removed. In fact, a double cousinship exists. This reviewer's father and Melinde's greatgrandfather were brothers; the reviewer's mother and her greatgrandmother were first cousins. Consequently the compilation of a Mann family history is being undertaken through joint efforts and sharing of materials and experiences. In a forthcoming trip to Scotland and England, this reviewer hopes to accumulate some photographs of localities including Elgin, Scotland, and Woodford and Ochendon, in co. Essex, England and to continue research begun some ten or more years ago at the Society of Genealogists in London and available in record offices. Melinde has at least temporarily sidetracked her pursuit of an M. A. degree and is now serving as editor of THE BULLETIN, quarterly publication of the Oregon State Genealogical Society - an exchange quarterly with ANCESTORS WEST - Her husband, Tucker Hatfield, is an engineering student at the University of Oregon in Eugene and interested in computer science.

Research for the Hayes family history was commissioned by O. Hayes Griffith, of Eugene. Work was commenced with research in the University of Oregon library and correspondence with senior members of the family, followed by searching in record centers in Seattle and Salt Lake City and finally a journey across the United States tracing the family's migration from east to west. Melinda went to courthouses, libraries and cemeteries in Texas, Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and Virginia. Her experiences ranged from pursuing a farmer and a tractor across 80 acres of muddy Missouri farmland once owned by Joel Hayes, Jr., driving to Paris, Texas, through a 100-mile cloud of grasshoppers, and crawling through a hot, humid, mosquito-infested Kentucky cemetery to find the gravestone of Elizabeth Foster Hayes (this from Mr. Griffith's preface).

Directions for using the book are given and are aimed at non-professional readers, explaining the unconventional numbering method employed, among other things. Some mystery still exists in the Hayes' ancestry. William Hayes, born about 1770 in Gloucester Co., Va. may have been a son of Hugh Hayes, as claimed in early DAR papers or of William Hayes, with whom he was connected through land transfers in Kentucky near Union Star. No documentary proof of evidence used in establishing ancestry for membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution can now be found, if it ever actually was submitted.

Chapters are unnumbered, but one is devoted to Hayes of Virginia, another to William Hayes and one each to the 7 known children of William and Elizabeth Foster Hayes. Graphic charts precede the discussion of each branch of the family. A most helpful feature of the book.

BOOK REVIEW

TWELVE FAMILIES -- AN AMERICAN EXPERIENCE, A Family History of ODELL-BAER and related lines, William F. Odell, Gateway Press, Inc., Baltimore, 1981 $27.50 from William F. O'Dell, 5707 Junction, Shell Point Village, Fort Myers, FL 33908 . Library of Congress Catalogue Card Number 81-80933. xiii, 520 pp. Front endpaper - Odell fan chart; Back endpaper - Baer fan chart.

The flyer accompanying the book describes the author as "a long-time genealogist, business man and university professor." The book was written after 30 years of research and is extensively documented in the footnotes and appendices; illustrated by more than 200 charts and photos. Index, pp 493 - 520.

From Chapter 12 we learn of the author's involvement and progress in the metalworking magazine field and of the launching of Market Facts, Inc. in 1946 - a marketing research organization, with office located in Chicago. In 1959 it became part of an international chain of marketing research firms - throughout Europe, Australia and Japan, called ROC International. Travels included a trip to Munich, Germany, in 1959, in 1960 while president of the American Marketing Association to the Soviet Union, in 1962 to Mexico City and a 6-week trip around South America; moving to Farmington, about 3 miles west of Charlottesville, Virginia in 1964, where he became a member of the business school faculty of the University of Virginia; a one-semester professorship at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, with his wife Bessie Baer Odell teaching English conversation at "Children's Garden," a middle school for Chinese orphans. The return trip through Cambodia, Thailand, Afghanistan, India, Switzerland and Denmark completed a 'round the world trip. In 1970 a home was purchased on the island of Grenada, some 90 miles off the coast of Venezuela, where 2 or 3 months each year during the 1970's was spent. Teaching was limited to the first semester. A move to Florida was made in the mid 1970's and in 1980 to the retirement village of Shell Point in Fort Meyers, in which year he also severed relationship with Market Facts, Inc. to devote his time and attention to this family history.

Other families: BLAIR, WHITE WRIGHT, DAVIS, SHOWERS, WILSON, CARROLL. Each chapter is preceded by a page devoted to a chart of the lineage covered therein and generally starts with an immigrant ancestor and proceeds down to the union of a member of that family with a member of the family in the next succeeding chapter. The numbering is by generations "away" from the children of William and Bess Odell - the Roman numeral specifies the generation the ancestor is "away" from their Peg and Dave and the arabic the individual. To distinguish maternal ancestors an asterisk (*) is placed between the Roman and Arabic numerals. The author acknowledges in his preface that "This numbering system may not satisfy the genealogical purist inasmuch as it violates accepted numbering procedures. However, it seems to this author that the numbering employed here aids the reader in more readily grasping the time period in which a particular ancestor appears in the narrative." He also states that occasional assumptions are made regarding activities, in order to present ancestors as humans - not as birth and death records. When assumptions are made they are mentioned in footnotes. Unless qualified in footnotes, all genealogical data on each ancestor are believed to be correct.

Appendix A, pp. 415-480, presents Family Compositions of Selected Lineages

Appendix B, pp. 481-483, suggests Areas of Further Genealogical Research for each of the twelve families and is a noteworthy contribution.

Appendix C, pp 484- 489, is the Diary of a Genealogical Trip during 1980 taken by the author and his wife from their Florida home, to New Orleans, La., Mississippi, Arkansas, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Washington, D. C. Maryland, North Carolina, and after some 5,500 miles back to the Florida home. Note is also made of several dozen trips over the years from North Carolina on the south to Wisconsin to the northwest and Vermont on the east.

Appendix D, p. 490, Universal Relationship Chart, with directions for its use.

This volume is a most valuable addition to the SBOGS library.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY

One of California's 27 original counties. While the county was actually created in 1850, the history of the area dates back to 1542. In that year Juan Cabrillo discovered the Santa Barbara Channel and later, according to legend crossed to San Miguel Island, where he died and was buried. A second Spanish explorer, Sebastian Vizcaino, entered the channel on the Feast Day of Saint Barbara in 1602 and named the area accordingly. Fr. Junipero Serra founded the Santa Barbara mission in 1786. Santa Barbara Royal Presidio, established April 21, 1782, was the last of four royal presidios in Alta California - San Diego, Monterey, San Francisco and Santa Barbara. Santa Barbara had all three Spanish forms- Presidio representing the military; Pueblo, civil and Mission, religious.

In 1873 Ventura County was established from the southern portion of the original Santa Barbara area.
