A FEW WORDS ABOUT THE CONCORD STAGECOACH

An Exhibit on the first floor of the Santa Barbara Courthouse. Submitted by Shirley Roddick Cobb, who copied the article, Reprinted from Omaha Herald, displayed inside the coach.

October 3, 1877

The famous Concord Coach represented the ultimate in luxurious land travel in its time. Built primarily of basswood, hickory, ash and oak, the Concord owed its distinctive appearance to the special woodworking skills of the coachmaker.

In addition to the famous Wells Fargo Treasure Box, the Concord Coach could carry as many as 18 persons, with more clinging to the top and some packed into the leather-lined interior. Despite the quality workmanship of the Concord, long trips over the rough roads and in bad weather could be rigorous as the passage below reveals.

TIPS FOR STAGECOACH TRAVELERS

"The best seat inside a stage is the one next to the driver. Even if you have a tendency to seasickness when riding backwards, you'll get over it and get less jolts and jostling. Don't let any 'sly elph' trade you his mid-seat. In cold weather don't ride with tight fitting boots, shoes or gloves. When the driver asks you to get off and walk do so without grumbling. He won't request it unless absolutely necessary. If the team runs away, sit still and take your chances. If you jump nine times out of ten times you will get hurt. In very cold weather abstain from liquor when on the road, because you will freeze twice as quickly when under its influence.

Don't growl at the food received at the station; stage companies generally provide the best they can get. Don't keep the stage waiting. Don't smoke a strong pipe inside the coach - spit on the leeward side. If you have anything to drink in a bottle, pass it around. Procure your stimulants before starting as "ranch" (Stage Depot) whiskey is not nectar. Don't swear or lop over neighbors when sleeping. Take small change to pay expenses. Never shoot on the road as the noise might frighten the horses. Don't discuss politics or religion. Don't point out where murders have been committed, especially if there are women passengers.

Don't lag at the wash basin. Don't grease your hair because travel is dusty. Don't imagine for a moment that you are going on a picnic. Expect arrogance, discomfort, and some hardship."

POEM IN GRANDMOTHER'S BIBLE

Whose love can equal the love
 of a mother,
 Whose the devotion so loyal and
 true,
 Who suffers so much with such
 joy for another.
 Who works with such pleasure as Mother for you.
 You hail with delight the friendship of others

You revel in love of the sweetheart you've won,
 Yet, where do you find a friendship like "Mother's"
 Unbroken till death calls and li~~e~~'s work is done.

Does anyone know the origin of this poem? -
 It's title- author- or possibly when written?
 I found it in my grandmother's Bible, many years ago. Were there additional verses?

HISTORY:

In 1539 the first European, Marco de Niza, a Franciscan friar, entered the limits of what is now Arizona. In 1732 Jesuit missions were established at Tubac and Guevavi.

The Jesuits were expelled in 1767, after which their missions and other properties were held by Franciscans. There was an Indian village at Tucson. A presidio in 1776 marked the beginning of Tucson as a Spanish settlement. All settlements except Tubac and Tucson were temporarily abandoned during the Mexican war of independence. American traders and explorers first penetrated the area in the first quarter of the 19th century. As a result of the Mexican War, New Mexico, which included all of Arizona north of the Gila River was ceded to the United States. The Gadsden Purchase of the strip south of the Gila River occurred in 1853. U.S. possession was taken in 1856. By Act of Feb. 24, 1863, Congress organized Arizona territory with its capital at Prescott. Phoenix, founded in 1871, incorporated in 1891, became the capital in 1889 and is now the state capital.

ARIZONA - Records, Research

Established in July 1909, the Division of Records and Statistics, State Dept. of Health, Phoenix, Arizona 85007, has birth and death records available since that date, and also similar records originating in the county seats since 1887. Marriage records are on file with the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county in which the license was issued. Divorce actions are maintained by the Clerk of the Superior Court in the county seat where the action was granted. Citizenship or naturalization papers are filed in the district court of the county where examination was conducted - also in the office of the Clerk of the United States District Courts in Tucson, Tombstone, Phoenix, Prescott, and Solomonville. All real estate records are on file in the office of the Recorder of the county in which the land is located.

Missouri

HISTORY:

Earliest inhabitants of Arkansas: BLUFF DWELLERS, flourishing about 500 A.D. Burial remains in northwestern Washington County. Planted beans, corn, pumpkins, sunflowers; adept at fishing, weaving, pottery making and chipping stone awls and other tools. Hunted with darts and a throwing stick similar to the Aztec atlatl. Later, MOUND DWELLERS along the Mississippi River, apparently ancestors of Indians discovered by early Spanish and French explorers. They left effigy vessels, pipes, shell, implements and skeletons.

EXPLORERS: 1541-1542 Hernando de Soto; 1673 French Jesuit missionary, Jacques Marquette, with Louis Joliet and 5 others went down Mississippi to about the mouth of the Arkansas, discovering the Mississippi flowed into the Gulf of Mexico and not the Pacific Ocean. April 9, 1682, Rene Robert Cavalier, Sieur de la Salle took formal possession for Louis XIV of France. In 1803, part of Louisiana Purchase and until 1812 an administrative subdivision of Louisiana, when Congress attached the District of Arkansas to Mississippi Terr. In 1819, when Missouri applied for statehood, Congress created Arkansas Territory and included what is now Oklahoma, 25th State, 1836.

ARKANSAS - Records, Research

The Panic of 1837 caused settlers in the older southern and eastern states to move westward. Some 30 years later the rich lands between the Arkansas and White Rivers attracted large groups of South European emigrants. Many came direct from Poland to Pulaski County. Italians were attracted to the northwest section of the state where they engaged in fruit raising.

The Bureau of Vital Statistics, State Health Dept., State Health Bldg., Little Rock, Arkansas has birth and death records from 1914 and marriage records from 1917. Clerks of counties where license was obtained also have marriage records. Clerks of Circuit Courts have records of wills, deeds, divorces, and war service. Naturalization records are on file in the District Courts at Little Rock, Helena, Batesville, Fort Smith and Texarkana. State Land Office, State Capitol Bldg. has original plats of U. S. Government surveys of Arkansas and original entries by Township and Range.

AWARDS TO MARGARET ELLISON BECKMAN (Mrs. Roy C.) of Easton, MARYLAND

In January 1984 several awards were made to a former Santa Barbaran, Margaret Ellison Beckman, the daughter of Dr. William H. Ellison, prominent educator-historian, for whom Ellison Hall at UCSB is named, for her Coast Guard Auxiliary and patrol service - the Daniel C. Long Memorial Plaque "Auxiliarist of the Year" in Div. She is a member of the board of directors of the Chesapeake Center and the Neighborhood Service Center and weaves pleasure rides into an educational experience for youngsters by teaching them boating safety, the necessity of wearing safety vests and the rules of the road while boating. For this educational aspect of her service she also received a national award for safeboating work in Washington, D. C.

Born in California, she majored in journalism, for 12 years was with the USIA (Voice of America) in Washington, D. C., from 1969-1977 did publicity work for the Academy of the Arts, and for many years handled publicity for the Talbot County Chapter of the Red Cross and the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary's Eastern Shore division and its five flotillas, serving as Publicity Chairman.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY

One of California's 27 original counties. While the county was actually created in 1850, the history of the area dates back to 1542. In that year Juan Cabrillo discovered the Santa Barbara Channel and later, according to legend crossed to San Miguel Island where he died and was buried. A second Spanish explorer, Sebastian Vizcaino, entered the channel on the Feast Day of Saint Barbara in 1602 and named the area accordingly. Fr. Junipero Serra founded the Santa Barbara mission in 1786. Santa Barbara Royal Presidio, established April 21, 1782, was the last of four royal presidios in Alta California - San Diego, Monterey, San Francisco and Santa Barbara. Santa Barbara had all three Spanish forms: presidio representing the military, pueblo, 1811 and Mission, religious. In 1873 Ventura County was established from the southern portion of the original Santa Barbara area.
