FROM THE INCOMING PRESIDENT

Recent years have been very productive for SBCCS. Our membership now stands at 300+, surely proof of interest and enthusiasm. President Ken Mathewson is to be commended for the past two years. Through dedication, time and effort, he and his board members have given outstanding service to our Society.

Expansion of membership is exciting, especially for those members who, by frequent participation, meet new researchers and broaden their base of knowledge for the ultimate goal, "success in the search." It is toward this end that the board establishes goals and plans programs.

We have enjoyed a variety of programs in the past few years. Our book fairs have been satisfying not only genealogically, but socially and financially as well. We have had an assortment of topics covered by entertaining and dynamic speakers. Our monthly bus trips continue to carry mostly capacity groups to the Los Angeles area. Resources from our sales items, raffles and monthly buffet table continue to swell the book fund. And who could forget the dedication of the Lemon Ladies who continue to seek new outlets for the sale of our lemon label collectibles.

All the above speaks to the achievements of our Society and none would be possible without the generosity of so many volunteers. More evidence of our good fortune is the number of volunteer forms received in our recent survey. Many chose several different ways in which they might participate. Both the interest and volunteer forms will be sent again with the December mailing for those who didn't in September, but want to for the new year.

At the November meeting, members elected me as President, Alma Thompson, Second Vice President (membership), and Julie Carr, Treasurer (second term). I am sure I speak for each of us in stating that it will be a pleasure to work with the board during the coming two years. I thank you for your kind comments and good wishes following elections. Your enthusiasm and friendship are contagious and we look forward to sharing with you continuing successes into the future.

Beatrice Mohr McGrath

MEMBER PROFILE BY CAROLYN CURTIS

SANDRA (NEMECHEK) STRICKLAND was born in Nebraska. Her Czechoslovakian Grandparents raised her until she was seven years old. They often told her stories of their past, perhaps that was the beginning of her life-long interest in genealogy. Sandra moved to Glendale, CA with her parents in 1942. After her husband graduated from Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo they made their home in Santa Barbara. They have one son who is stationed in Alaska with the United States Air Force. Sandra returned to college at UCSB and graduated in 1968. She worked for a builder/developer as a marketing director until 1983.

Sandra attended the Society's Genealogical Fair in the Fall of 1986. With a renewed passion for genealogy she began researching and organizing her family history. She is an active member of our Society serving on the Relocation Committee for the Library and as one of the original Lemon Ladies. Sandra continues to actively research her family lines and enjoys the Society bus trips to Los Angeles.

Sandra is currently writing her Czechoslovakian history. She is also researching her Motner's family. She is currently working on the following lines.

and four other descendants of "Richland Boys":

Harriet Hink and Louise Hink Snook, granddaughters of GEORGE W. MILLER

Mary Red Beard, great great granddaughter and Laverne Brockman, great granddaughter of CHARLES LEWIS, brother of the "Lewis Boys:

Joan is a great granddaughter of Elizabeth Miller Mc-DERMOTT, sister of the "Miller Boys".

have compiled a collection of 14 letters, 11 written from California by Solomon and Samuel Miller to their brother John Miller and his family of Richland Co., Mifflin Township, OHIO. 2 letters are from Jonas Le Rew a fellow Gold Rusher and later of York Co., PA and one from Harry Vantilburgh, also a fellow Gold Rusher, to John Miller.

The letters have been typed, with no alterations of spelling, only insertion of dashes, as there are no periods to indicate sentence endings, followed by 17 footnotes, including an excerpt from American Heritage, April 1963, on frontier doctors and the varied systems and theories of medicine then in vogue. Next a list of people mentioned in the letters, with page references (54 names listed) Genealogies of the Miller and Lewis families, followed by photocopies of the fourteen letters.

The stated purpose for compiling these letters is to supply genealogical information for those in search of their ancestors, to supply first-hand information for those interested in the California Gold Rush; and to help future generations understand better their heritage.

Datelines of Letters are:

John Miller, shows receipt of letter of Jan. 26, 1853.

*** Letter No. 10 from Solomon to his older brother, John, includes names of some of those lost in a crossing of the Yuba River on 29 May, 1851. Among them his brother, Samuel Miller, Henry Vantilburgh, Charles Cox, John Stull, and "Little Steven: Lewis, son of Samuel S. and Elizabeth Lewis, cousins of the Miller boys, Samuel B. Newsbaugh, Daniel Beighny from Wain(Wayne) Co., H. Hodje from York State. Also lost were 3 Frenchmen whose names he did not know.

GOLD RUSH LETTERS TO JOHN MILLER

LOCATION OF RICHLAND COUNTY

Immediately south of THE FIRE LANDS and southwest of THE CONNECTICUT WESTERN RESERVE, and in the western portion of CONGRESS LANDS 1799-1804. Richland County was created in 1808, so called because of its rich soil. The county adjoining it to the east is ASHLAND, created in 1846 and named for "Ashland", home of Henry Clay near Lexington, KY.

In your Editor's files is a copy of "A Short History of OHIO LAND GRANTS," prepared for the Schools of Ohio, by James A. Rhodes, Auditor of State, Supervisor of School and Ministerial Lands, Custodian of Public Land Records, bearing no publication date, but which was obtained prior to writing an article on the Northwest Territory, printed in the NSDAR Magazine April, 1959.

THE FIRE LANDS - In 1792 Connecticut granted about 781 square miles or 500,000 acres, from the west side of the Connecticut Western Reserve to 1,870 persons residing in 9 Connecticut towns who had suffered from fire losses caused by the English during the Revolutionary War.

CONGRESS LANDS (1786-1820) are so-called because they were sold to purchasers by the immediate officers of the general government, conformable to existing laws as enacted by Congress. These lands are regularly surveyed into townships of six square miles each, under authority, and at the expense of the national government. Section 16 of every township was perpetually reserved for the use of schools, to be leased or sold for the benefit of schools under the state government. All the others could be purchased in sections, fractions, halves, quarters or half quarters. Land Districts bearing the names of towns in which the land offices were located operated until 1876. After 1876 sales were made through the Commissioners of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C.

This booklet also reproduces the wording of the Ordinance of the Northwest Territory (1787), the first commonwealth in the world whose organic law recognized every man as free and equal. There also is a map in which the early principal land subdivisions are imposed on the present map of Ohio.

Chart 40, as it appeared in ANCESTORS WEST, Vol. 10, No. 1, pp-9-11, was limited almost entirely to her mother's New England ancestry. This revision and expansion illustrates how communication with others of similar descent and interests can be rewarding. Marie has through LOST IN CANADA and correspondence gained many additional names. Since much of the early Canadian information is obtained from church records, where known, complete dates of birth, marriage and death are given.

A Canadian correspondent has supplied copies of pages from YOUR ANCIENT CANADIAN FAMILY TIES. Marie has indicated by marking or outlining in red ink applicable entries. Each entry is supported by reference to Tanguay's Dictionnaire genealogique des familles canadiennes. In the SBCGS Library there is a copy of the 1972 edition of Your Ancient Canadian Family Ties compiled by Reginald L. Olivier, genealogist, Sanford, Maine, published by Everton Publishers, Inc. Other ancestors were found through Our French-Canadian Ancestors (Nos Ancestres). Vols. I, II and III are in the SBCGS Library and Marie has Vol. IV, Thomas J. LaForest, copyrighted by The LISI Press, P. O. Bx 1063, Palm Harbor, FL 34273-1063, ISBN 0-914163-05-7, Library of Congress Card Catalog No. 83-81941 (part of an ongoing series of a projected ten volumes). An introduction by Raymond Dubille, S.R.C. states he has devoted over 50 years of his life poring over old manuscripts, details, and works of Msgr. Cyprian Tanguay, newspaper columns of Gerald Lebel in the Revue Saint Anne de Beaupre, and of Jacques Saintonge in Le Novelette, of Trois Rivieres. In 1981, the series entitled Nos Ancestres was born. In Vol. IV, opposite the title page is a map of the Provinces of France under the Old Regime, that is, as they existed at the time of the exploration and colonization of New France (Canada) in the early Seventh Century. Permission to reproduce that map has been requested from the publisher and will be included in this issue of ANCESTORS WEST if possible. Vol. IV consists of 26 Chapters, with Endnotes, Appendix A, Evolution of French-Canadian Family Names, in this volume listing those commencing with the letters A and B, (pp. 247-265) and a Selected Bibliography on p. 266, Bibliography, 266-270, and an Index of Names from Chapters 1-26.

Your Editor did not find an explanation of the use of dit but her own explanation is that the French word for "said" may be translated "called" and was used to distinguish a later person or family of the same surname from earlier residents. Marie says LaBreche in the French dictionary is said to mean break or gap. #4 in her Table is Jacques Dugas LaBreche, and #8, his father, Medard Dugas die La-Breche, which would indicate that Medard Dugas emigrated from France to Canada, where DUGAS was already an established name and he became known as LaBreche, as the first of his own line to break away from France. The explanation that he was an orphan who was known by the surname of the family where he was housed but wished to retain connection with an earlier family name does not seem appropriate.

COMMENTS ON CHART 40 Marie LaBreche

(con)

SUGGESTIONS FOR PREPARATION OF ANCESTRAL CHART

Use of a six-generation chart, such as those available from SBCGS is suggested, starting with yourself as No. 1 - or as is done by some of our members using No. 1 for a child, in order to embrace both paternal and maternal family names on one chart. Be sure to use identifying numbers for each person. Prepare Family Group Sheets for each generation, with references and supporting data (certified copies, Bible records, etc.)

Make continuing charts for earlier ancestors, always using the identifying numbers, showing Chart Number and Compiler with date of compilation.

Also take a ruled 8 1/2 x 11 pad and make a running list by number, name, of husband, birth marriage and death data, name of wife with her birth and death dates. Any later changes make in red ink. Fill in the blanks if and when additional names, dates, etc. are learned.

The preparation of Chart 40 was made somewhat time consuming because separate sheets had been made out for a number of female ancestors and carried back through a number of generations, but no consolidated product had been compiled embracing all of these sheets. Your Editor spent two sessions of a little over three hours each in reviewing the compilation with Marie, and then retyped the lists to include additional names.

Marie has long lists of Whipple and Green names, which should be added if the identity of Joseph Clark and Hulda Clark is confirmed and that of Joseph Whipple and Catherine Greene.

PEARL CHASE MEMORIAL

On November 16, 1988, a community luncheon to honor the memory of PEARL CHASE was held at the El Paseo Restaurant, in Santa Barbara to celebrate what would have been her 100th birthday and was co-sponsored by Friends of Pearl Chase and the Trust for Historic Preservation. It is generally conceded she was the person most responsible for the Spanish influence in Santa Barbara architecture. Many of her papers are to be found in the Pearl Chase Collection, in the Special Collections Section, of the UCSB Library.
 She opposed billboards and high-rise for Santa Barbara.

SCGS - RESEARCH ASSISTANCE OFFERS

The SCGS (SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY Research Team offers

CALIFORNIA GOLD RUSH SEARCH

by trained researchers to assist in searching for an ancestor who came to California during the Gold Rush years..

Many easterners came to the California Gold Rush country (as Forty-Niners) for just a few months and then returned home. Other gold seekers came to pan and stayed to become permanent residents. The search is designed to locate both types of gold seekers.

A flyer states, for a fee of $10, the researchers will check the following indexes and make a full report:

San Francisco Ship Passenger Lists (4 volumes), Louis J. Rasmussen, listing some 66,000 passengers arriving in the Port of San Francisco from 1850 to 1853, with a few ships arriving up to 1875. Items of information include the name and type of ship, port of origin, name of the Captain, date of arrival, route, duration and weather of passage; cargo; and list of passengers.

Index to the 1850 California Census, Jackson & Teeples.

Index to the 1860 California Census, Ronald Vern Jackson, 7 volumes.

Allow 3 weeks for delivery; send order to SCGS RESEARCH TEAM, P. O. Bx 4377, Burbank CA 91503

The Research Team offers to do IRELAND Immigrant Search on a similar basis of indexes in the Society Library, including:

The Famine Immigrants, Lists of Irish Immigrants Arriving at the Port of New York, 1846-1851.
7 volumes, containing about 580,500 names.

Index for the 1796 Premium Entitlement Awardees of the Trustees of the Linen & Hemp Manufacturers of Ireland. This "Spinning Wheel" Survey of Ireland contains approximately 53,900 names of persons owning spinning wheels and producing linen and hemp materials in 1796, together with the province, county and parish where each individual was living.

Irish Marriages 1771-1812, an index to Walker's Hibernian Magazine, Henry Ferrer, containing names of 132,000 persons.

SANTA BARBARA LDS LIBRARY

The microfilm of The Abstracts of Wills of the State of South Carolina, 3 volumes (on one film), by Caroline T. Moore has been put on Indefinite Loan (Film # 1035622). These are the wills recorded at Charleston, South Carolina, between the years of 1670--1784. All wills for South Carolina were recorded centrally at Charleston until after the Revolutionary War, so this work contains abstracts of nearly all of the early South Carolina wills that have survived. An "every name" index is found at the end of each volume. Testators are specially noted.

TERMS WITH CHANGED MEANINGS.

- MISTRESS Not necessarily a married woman - s term of respect for any mature woman.
- GENTLEMAN Might be used to describe a retired man of wealth or education.
- HOUSEKEEPER Once meant property owner and could be used for a male or female.
- DOMESTIC Once meant the housewife and not necessarily a servant.
- INMATE As used in the Pennsylvania Archives refers to a man living in the home of another person - not necessarily a person in an institution.
- FREEMAN As used in Pennsylvania Archives meant a young man not yet married.

LONG ISLAND GENEALOGIES (con)

Names of early Powell settlers in Virginia are given. At pp. 343-346, the text is devoted to NEW HAVEN THOMAS POWELL with whom no relationship to the first THOMAS POWELL of Long Island was found. Additional SMITH names are given at p. 347, with marriages into MOTT, WILLIAMS, SEAMAN, WILLET and SMITH families.

These related families have been given in more than the usual detail by reason of the fact that Mary Powell Bunker, a descendant of three successive Thomas Powells and many other early settlers of Long Island, in her preface states she compiled her work from thirty years of interesting study examining many and various town, county, State, church, family Bible and other records, at all times taking notes; also due to the fact that so many readers of ANCESTORS WEST are not able to personally make use of the Society library.

LARKMAN INDEX

Frank Randall, 69, First Avenue, Carlton, NOTTINGHAM, NG4 1PH, U.K., writes that he and a cousin have been researching their LARKMAN ancestors for many years. This rare surname originated in Norfolk, England, in the 16th century, but has now spread round the English-speaking world. They believe the index would be of interest to members of SBCGS. There now exists a LARKMAN INDEX containing over 2,000 names. Information is free to anyone interested, but an SASE or the appropriate number of International Postal receipts would be appreciated. Don't send United States postage stamps.

VIRGINIA - WEST VIRGINIA

Review copies of two publications, paperback, on acid-free paper, have been received from the Iberian Publishing Company, Athens, GA.

MARRIAGE RECORDS IN THE VIRGINIA STATE LIBRARY: A Researcher's Guide Second Edition, John Vogt and T. William Kethley, Jr., 1988. ISBN 0-935931-44-9 246 pages with 1850 Virginia map showing counties.

In the fall of 1987 a major renovation of facilities was commenced at the Virginia State Library, collections in the Archives Branch were re-ordered and the entire Library collection was placed on computer access through terminals located in the Archive's research rooms. The Introduction to the Second Edition states the Archives Branch of the Virginia State Library provides the greatest source of genealogical data on those Virginia frontiersmen who traveled west as well as their ancestors who chose to remain behind in their family homes. These sources include state records, copies of extant county records such as wills, deeds, orders, and marriages; church records, personal papers; unpublished genealogical notes; military records; and family Bible records.

pp. 12 - 21 list STATEWIDE AND REGIONAL RECORDS, listed under topics: GENERAL SOURCES BURNED RECORDS, compiles original sources from Hanover, Dinwiddie, Elizabeth City, Buckingham, Stafford, King and Queen, and Gloucester counties of approximately 1,500 marriages. pp.14-16. CHURCH RECORDS FINDING AIDS PERIODICALS MISCELLANEOUS MARRIAGES CARD FILES. Contents of six boxes of card files described. Followed by alphabetical listing of all Counties with an initial description of dates of formation, changes of name and boundaries, with listings of ORIGINAL SOURCES, MICROFILM SOURCES, and PUBLISHED SOURCES.

The Index pp. 385 - 457, appears to be most meticulously prepared - place names are included; individual names, with spellings or abbreviations of first names as occurring in the sources

Divisions of the book: EARLY SURVEY RECORDS, 1780-1799, pp. 1-94; EARLY COURT RECORDS 1780-1801, 1811, 1817-1819, pp. 95-266 COURT RECORD BOOKS 1828-1835 pp. 267-312

DISTRICT COURT RECORDS, Botetourt, Greenbrier, Kanawha and Montgomery counties, 1792-1979 pp.313-346 DEEDS, SWEET SPRINGS VA COURTHOUSE, pp 347-381

In the text, surnames are printed in Bold Type, rendering use of the references much easier.

HOLDINGS OF GENEALOGICAL VALUE IN MINNESOTA'S COUNTY MUSEUMS, by Lucille Kirkeby, $10.00 Described in flyer as a book which will tell you county by county what types of material are available in each county museum of Minnesota's 87 counties or through the historical society. The first chapters give practical suggestions for research, addresses, resources, and listing of equipment available for use of a researcher. The Minnesota State Historical Society and the Minnesota Archives are the subject of one chapter.

BOOK REVIEW

Book donated by Linda Bowen, of the News-Press staff.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S DESCENDANTS, 1987, Marlene A. Eilers, Lib.Congress Catalogue Card No. 87-087963, ISBN No. 0-918311-04-02, pub. Atlantic International Publications, 260 West 35th St., Suite 702, New York NY 10001 235 pp + 9 page unnumbered index and 1/2 page errata. Profusely illustrated. The first chapter is devoted to QUEEN VICTORIA, followed by chapters for each of her children, in the order of birth: Princess Victoria, King Edward VII, Princess Alice, Prince Alfred, Princess Helena, Princess Louise; Prince Arthur, Prince Leopold, and Princess Beatrice. The second half of the book is devoted to genealogies of descendants, chaptered in the same order, with many endnotes, acknowledgments, and bibliography, pp. 234-235.

The author, who holds a master's degree in library science from the State University of New York at Albany and since 1981 has been employed as a news librarian with the Associated Press in New York, in her preface states that her goal was to produce a genealogy that is usable for both the amateur and professional genealogist and to provide a totally accurate record. Where data was unavailable or questionable, that fact is made clear. Over ten years went into preparation. The result an unusually readable and informative compilation.

ENGLISH COOKIE RECIPE

FLAPJACKS -- An English cookie, recipe from an English cousin of Audrey Guntermann's

(English measurements)

3 ounces margarine
 1- $\frac{1}{2}$  tablespoons Golden Syrup (I used Light Karo, but other might do)
 1- $\frac{1}{2}$  ounces sugar (she uses demarara; I used brown sugar)
 6 ounces Porridge oats
 Good pinch salt

Melt margarine, syrup, sugar and salt. Add oats. Mix well and press into small shallow greased tin. Bake in moderate oven* for about 20 minutes till golden brown. Cut into sections while warm. Allow to set before removing from tin.

NB. She uses a mixture of mostly oats and some barley flakes, rye flakes, millet flakes and sesame seeds.

* About 350 degrees F.

FAMILY RECIPE

For some years, I had known that my ancestors, Christian Thomas Harbaugh (Herbach) (1753-1836) and Maria Elizabeth Williard (Villiar, Viellard) (1760-1824), were buried at Graceham Church Cemetery near Thurmont and Camp David in Frederick County, Maryland. Two years ago I came across a list of burials and discovered, to my surprise, that Graceham Church was Moravian. (The church still meets in basically the same structure with remodel and addition.) Since this heritage was not passed down through my Mother's family, I obtained the following recipe from THE ART OF PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH COOKING by Edna Eby Heller with additional background from AMERICANA magazine, November/December, 1979. The Moravians were among the first Americans to celebrate Christmas. Cookies were very important to this celebration. They were baked by the hundreds. Brown Moravian cookies or Moravian Christmas cookies are probably the most common among these cookies. Vegetable shortening may be successfully substituted for lard.

Phyllis Mafewell

BROWN MORAVIAN COOKIES

(5 dozen cookies)

1/2 cup lard	4 cups sifted flour
1/2 cup butter	1 teaspoon ginger
1 cup light brown sugar	1 tablespoon cinnamon
1 cup New Orleans	1/4 teaspoon cloves
mild-flavored baking	1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
molasses (as Gold	1 teaspoon baking soda
Label Brer Rabbit)	1/4 cup warm water

Cream together the shortening and sugar. Stir in the molasses. Add the flour which has been resifted with the spices. Mix thoroughly. Lastly, stir in the soda which has been dissolved in warm water. When blended, cover and chill overnight.

On a floured board roll out very thin. Cut out cookies with cutters of birds, animals, men, and stars. Bake in a 325° oven for 10 to 12 minutes.

NEW IN THE LIBRARY

This Section will be resumed in the next issue of ANCESTORS WEST. During the absence of Ruth Scollin, SBCGS Librarian on a trip to Great Britain and Europe SBCGS member Doris Crawford has been serving at the Library, and arranging for an assisting staff of volunteers.

The Editor has made a card index for use in the Library of items appearing in ANCESTORS WEST from its inception more than ten years ago.

As Vice President in charge of Programs, Jan Cloud has arranged for seminars and lectures at regular meetings with outstanding speakers.

As yet the individual responses to the Request for Statement of Special Interests have not been made available except through the announcements in TREE TIPS. However, with the new year, great things should be coming forth and the formation of smaller groups with common interests is anticipated.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY

One of California's 27 original counties. While the county was actually created in 1850, the history of the area dates back to 1542. In that year Juan Cabrillo discovered the Santa Barbara Channel and later, according to legend crossed to San Miguel Island, where he died and was buried. A second Spanish explorer, Sebastian Vizcaino, entered the channel on the Feast Day of Saint Barbara in 1602 and named the area accordingly. Fr. Junipero Serra founded the Santa Barbara mission in 1786. Santa Barbara Royal Presidio, established April 21, 1782, was the last of four royal presidios in Alta California - San Diego, Monterey, San Francisco and Santa Barbara. Santa Barbara had all three Spanish forms: Presidio representing the military; Pueblo, civil and Mission, religious.

In 1873 Ventura County was established from the southern portion of the original Santa Barbara area.
